KNOW

On-Screen Takeoff paints the perfect picture from project conception to completion.

- Jeremy Lagalo
Assistant Project Manager
Robins & Mortin

The takeoff solution that started THE INDUSTRY in 1994; On-Screen Takeoff effectively scales to support small contractors and global construction enterprises.

- Reduce Costs by Eliminating Printed Plans
- Omit Errors with Visual Audit Trail of the Quantity Takeoff
- Multi-Condition Takeoff by Simultaneously Highlighting & Measuring Item Quantities
- Improve Accuracy with Automatic Counting of Repetitive Symbols
- Save Time by Easily Separating Takeoff Quantities Into Bid Areas
- Catch Addendum Changes by Overlaying Original & Revised Plans
- Streamline Communication for Scope of Work & Change Orders
- Eliminate Manual Entry Mistakes by Incorporating Quantity Takeoff Into the Estimate

PROFIT

Digital Production Control, without it most contractors don't know there are problems until it's too late—no time to recover.

- Timothy J. Wies
President
TJ Wies Contracting, Inc.

The PATENTED TECHNOLOGY that ties everything together; since 2008 Digital Production Control helps construction companies act on threats to bottom line profitability.

- Accurately Track the Budget by Knowing the Estimated Labor for Each Item on the Plan
- Increase Crew Production through Proactive Goal Setting
- Know Percent Complete based on the Earned Value of the Budgeted Labor
- Lower Risks associated With Project Overruns & Schedule Delays
- Manage the Project with a Tablet Onsite, in the Field
- Document, Argue, & Win Project Claims & Job Status Discrepancies
- Improve Bidding Accuracy with Continuous Feedback of Actual Achieved Production
